Password Management Emails

Bryn Mawr College community members may receive the following emails:

When a new account has been created:

Subject: Welcome! Setting up your Bryn Mawr College Accounts
From: help@brynmawr.edu

Welcome! We have created a new user account for you.

Click on the following link to activate your account, create your password and set up your security questions: <link>. Please note that Haverford College and Bryn Mawr College share some systems including Account Management; during this process, you will find yourself at a haverford.edu Web page where both Bryn Mawr and Haverford accounts are managed. If you have any questions about the authenticity of this email, please contact the Bryn Mawr College Help Desk at 610-526-7440 or help@brynmawr.edu.

Your username is: <username>

Be sure to have your authorization code <code> handy for this process. This will be used only once.

If you are applying to Bryn Mawr College, we thank you for your interest in attending. This account was automatically created on receipt of your application and will grant you access to the system in which your application is being managed. You may need to log in during the Applications process. A member of our Admissions team will be in touch shortly with more information about your application and the admissions process. In the meantime, please go to http://brynmawr.edu/admissions/apply/self-service.html and follow the instructions there to get started. If you later join our student community, you will keep this account throughout your time here.

If you are a new faculty or staff member, alum, or affiliate, or are returning to Bryn Mawr, please see http://techbar.blogs.brynmawr.edu/?p=1720 for information about getting started, and follow any instructions given to you by HR, the Provost’s office, or the department you are joining. This account will give you access to a wide variety of systems and services.

When your account is scheduled to be disabled:

Subject: Account scheduled to be disabled
From: help@brynmawr.edu

Our records show that you have been scheduled to leave or significantly change your status within the Bryn Mawr community. As a result, some or all of your College accounts will be disabled as detailed below.

Please take the time to retrieve all of your personal data before this date; we may not be able to provide this data to you if you request to retrieve it once the account has been closed.

If you are a departing Faculty or Staff member, or you have files in your account related to a student position you held while on campus, please be sure to obey all legal and ethical guidelines (and any implicit within your employment agreement) when deciding what data to take with you; HR can help if you require clarification.
